Part 1: WORKSHOP FORMAT

What workshop format is requested? Tick one only*

Interactive Circle

This is a fishbowl-style, interactive set up. Conversation and debate with the audience is encouraged; lengthy presentations and PowerPoints are discouraged.

Panel Debate

This is a traditional panel set up, with a table at the front of the room facing the audience. Fewer presentations and more discussion is ideal. Good moderation is key; welcoming questions from the audience is essential.

Design tips:

- Provide clear follow-up actions.
- Incorporate a diversity of gender, sector, race, geographic and other perspectives among panellists or contributors, including people with direct community-level experiences of corruption.
- Consider:
 - o including a call for action.
 - o addressing how to scale up investment in solutions.
 - o what insights new or younger voices might offer.
 - o how to involve business in the solutions.
